Dear Students, Dear Colleagues,

I am pleased to inform you that in recent days new donations of medical material have arrived at Politecnico: this is a very strong sign of the relationship and collaboration built over the years with Chinese Universities and Institutions.

I would like on behalf of the entire community to thank Shanghai Jiao Tong University, Tongji University, and Well Stay Education Group Limited of Shanghai.

The semester proceeds regularly, including the studios, therefore we decided to provide students with a new offer of Passion in Action, the catalogue of educational activities that Politecnico offers to students, to encourage them to develop transversal skills and to foster an enrichment of their cultural and professional background. I invite all students to check the program of courses that will be provided in distance learning.

As far as the academic calendar is concerned, I would like to remind the students that it has been decided to cancel the April midterm tests, therefore in the days of Tuesday 7, Wednesday 8 and Thursday 9 lessons will be held regularly.

Wishing you a good evening I invite you again next week to connect to the online events of the cycle 20 e20 2020. Furthermore, remember that you can join the workouts by following "Smart Training - Live" on the social channels Polimisport Facebook and Instagram [@PolimiSport]

Ferruccio Resta
