Dear Students, Dear Colleagues,

the first week of the so-called phase 2 ends today. I would really like to thank everyone for the responsibility with which it has been faced.

We managed to combine the reopening of laboratories, in safety, with the limitation of movements thanks to smart working.

Teaching and research activities and services continue thanks to the competence of colleagues and staff of central administration, of departments and campuses.

Next week we will certainly increase the attendance to the campuses but I am sure that all of us will continue to act with the sense of responsibility that is one of the founding values of the Code of Ethics and Conduct of our University.

Best regards
