Privacy policy

Under EU Regulation no. 679/2016 (so called GDPR), we provide below the information regarding the processing of personal data of persons who, during the COVID-19 emergency, access the premises and offices of the Politecnico di Milano or other places related to the latter.

Data Controller:
Politecnico di Milano - Director General, by proxy of the pro-tempore Rector – e-mail: dirgen@polimi.it

Data protection officer: privacy@polimi.it, tel.: 0223999378

Type of personal data processed and data subjects

Within the limits of the purposes and methods defined in this notice, the following are subject to processing:

a) data relating to the body temperature of the person concerned, certified by the person in question to a maximum of 37.5°C;

b) data relating to the non-subjection to quarantine measures or of fiduciary isolation with health monitoring.

The personal data subject to processing refer to:

a) the staff of the Politecnico di Milano. With respect to these stakeholders, this information complements the information on health and safety in the workplace (https://www.polimi.it/privacy/informativa-per-i-trattamenti-dati-per-la-salute-e-la-sicurezza-delle-persone-sul-luogo-di-lavoro/);

b) students at the Politecnico di Milano. This information supplements the information for student careers

c) suppliers, transporters, contractors, visitors and other third parties authorised to access the premises and offices of the Politecnico di Milano or other places in any case related to the latter.

Purpose and legal basis of data processing

Personal data will be processed exclusively for purposes of the prevention from contagion by COVID-19, in execution of the Anti-contagion Safety Protocol adopted pursuant to art. 1, n. 7, letter d) of the Prime Ministerial Decree of 11 March 2020 and the Government/Social Partners shared Protocol of 14 March 2020 as well as the Regional Ordinance of the Lombardy Region n. 517 of 23/03/2020.

The legal basis is identified in Art. 9 par. 2(g); processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest under Union or Member State law.

Nature of the provision of personal data

It is necessary to provide the data in order to access the premises and offices of the Politecnico di Milano or other areas in any case related to the latter. Any refusal to grant the data shall prevent entry.

Method, scope and duration of data processing

Data processing is carried out by University staff, in their capacity as authorised processors.
Personal data will not be disclosed or communicated to third parties, except in accordance with specific regulatory provisions (e.g. in the event of a request by the Health Authority for the reconstruction of the chain of any close contacts of a worker found to test positive with COVID-19).

The data will be processed for the time strictly necessary to pursue the aforementioned purpose of prevention from contagion by COVID-19, and will be stored at the Politecnico di Milano for no longer than the end of the state of emergency, currently set at 31 July 2020 by the Council of Ministers’ Resolution of 31 January 2020.

Rights of the data subjects

At any time, data subjects have the right to access their personal data, to request that it be corrected, updated and deleted. It is also possible to object to the data processing and request that it be limited.

These requests can be addressed directly to the (trading name / company name), at the contact details indicated in the introduction. Furthermore, in the event that it is held to be true that the data processing has been carried out in violation of the legislation on the protection of personal data, the right to lodge a complaint with the Guarantor Authority for the protection of personal data is recognised.
