

COUNTRY SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS FOR DOCUMENTS ASSESSMENT

INTERNATIONAL BACCALAUREATE (IB)

All the students with an International Baccalaureate diploma (IB) must share their results through the <https://www.ibo.org/> website. In this case, it is therefore not necessary to ask for CIMEA Statement of Verification. The students will be asked to upload their IB diploma, along with the grades of the last two years of school.

EUROPEAN BACCALAUREATE (SCHOLA EUROPAEA), FOREIGN DIPLOMAS OBTAINED IN ITALY

Politecnico di Milano will contact the schools directly to verify the authenticity of such diplomas. Apart from the grades of the last two years of school, the students will have to upload only the actual diploma.

BRITISH HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMAS

The students who have obtained the 3 A levels required for the enrolment from the Cambridge Assessment International Education (CAIE) must share their results through the CAIE website and upload their General Certificate of Education, along with the grades of the last two years of school.

All the other students will be asked to upload CIMEA Statement of Verification or the e-Apostille, unless an online verification tool is available, along with their General Certificate of Education and the grades of the last two years of school.

CHINA HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMAS

All the Chinese diplomas, as well as the GAO KAO exams, can be verified online through the CSSD (China Credentials Verification) website: <https://www.chsi.com.cn/en/>.

Apart from the declaration of value, or the CIMEA Statement of Comparability, students with a Chinese high school diploma must upload the "Verification Report of China Secondary Education Qualification Certificate", along with the actual diploma and the grades of the last two years of school.

TURKEY HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMAS

All the Turkish high school diplomas can be verified online, as well as the YKS university entrance exam. It is therefore not necessary for the students to ask for CIMEA Statement of Verification. Apart from the grades of the last two years of school, the students will only have to upload their high school diploma and YKS certificate.
