ATTACHMENT No. 1 to the 1st MINUTES (EVALUATION CRITERIA)

The Board assesses candidates admitted for selection on the basis of:

- curriculum;
- scientific publications;
- teaching experience.

The Judging Panel, referring to the subject of the call and the interdisciplinary themes pertinent to it, will make use of the following criteria:

- a) Quality of scientific production, assessed on the basis of criteria and parameters recognized by the international scientific community of reference (max. 55 points)

Each of the publications (up to 15) will be ranked as irrelevant (0 points), fair (1 point), good (2 points) or excellent (3 points) based on the following distinction:

- irrelevant: not a scientific contribution according to the standards of the discipline, or inadequate publication channel, or too little innovation/difference with respect to other submitted publication, or no relation to the scientific discipline of the offered position;
- fair: fulfilling minimum requirements of a scientific publication within the discipline of the offered position but not good;
- good: significant scientific contribution, and listed in Scopus, and cited by others if first published at least 2 years ago (self-citations not counted);
- excellent: good, and listed in Web of Science or published in the proceedings of a highly competitive international conference with full paper peer review, and applicant is first or last author.

Additionally up to 10 points will be awarded for the overall scientific quality and productivity as represented by the CV in its entirety.

- b) Teaching activities carried out in Italian or foreign Universities or comparable bodies (max. 25 points)

The commission will evaluate the teaching activities relevant for the announced position, i.e., courses carried out at Italian or foreign universities, in summer schools or in other didactic settings related to teaching at an academic level.

- c) Scientific responsibility for funded research projects (max. 15 points)

- d) Results obtained in technology transfer in terms of participation in the creation of new enterprises (spin offs), development, use and marketing of patents (max. 5 points)

The minimum score below which the candidate will not be placed in the ranking is: 50 out of 100 points.

The level of foreign language knowledge level will be assessed as follows: the language capabilities are sufficient if at least two of the following criteria are met by the applicant:

- i. holds an internationally acknowledged language certificate (at least level C1 according to CEFR);
- ii. has lived or had an uninterrupted scientific stay in an English speaking country for at least 2 months;
- iii. has chaired an international working group or society;
- iv. has delivered at least 3 oral presentations in English at international conferences;
- v. has more than 2 years of experience in teaching (an) entire course(s) in English;
- vi. is the first author of at least 3 publications in English.
