ART. 2 TYPE OF ACTIVITIES

Student tutors will have the task of:

- providing guidance to students with regard to the practical organisation of their studies (structuring their study plan, organising their teaching, etc.) and the support structures offered by the Politecnico;

- being a contact person for the students of the degree courses with regard to any problems they may have with the teaching of their courses or the ways in which the assessment tests are administered;
- giving support to students who are having difficulties with the course and therefore need to bridge certain (limited) gaps in their basic knowledge, providing help with clarifications and resolutions for exercises (with no explanations regarding the content of the courses).

ART. 3 RECIPIENTS

The call for applications is open to all students enrolled in the third year of a three-year Laurea (equivalent to Bachelor of Science) course or single-cycle Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) course at the School of Urban Architecture, Engineering and Construction Engineering for the A.Y. 2021/2022 who have, as of 31 October, acquired at least 90 ECTSs, with a weighted average that is ≥ 25 .

ART. 4 TERMS OF SUBMISSION

Applications for participation must be submitted through the dedicated function available on the Online Services (in the “Richieste di ammissione>Ammissione a procedure di selezione” [“Admission requests > Admission to selection procedures”] section):

From 10 January and up to 12.00 (Italian time) on 21 January 2022

ART. 5 RANKINGS

The ranking will be formulated based on the attribution of a score determined by the following formula:

WEIGHTED AVERAGE x ECTSs RECORDED (as of 31 October 2021)

Extra taught courses will not be taken into consideration.

If multiple candidates achieve the same score, the higher place in the ranking will be given to the candidate in the more disadvantaged financial situation according to the ISEE [Equivalent Economic Situation Indicator] (or the equivalent ISEEU for those without income in Italy) as per the student database at the deadline of this call for applications; if the student does not have an ISEE/ISEEU declaration, they will be attributed - for the purposes of this ranking only - the highest ISEE/ISEEU financial value indicated in table no. 1 of the Regulations on student fees.

Should the tie persist even after this measure, the younger student will take precedence.

Students may view their position in the provisional rankings by accessing “Submission of application for 150 hours collaboration/tutoring”, available in the Online Services, from 26 January 2022.

ART. 6 AWARD OF THE APPOINTMENTS

The positions will be awarded following the order of each ranking.

Collaborations which - in order to be truly effective and helpful - must involve students in possession of particular requirements (e.g. having passed specific exams, knowledge of a certain language, etc.) may be assigned outside of the order of the ranking, as an exception.

The rankings will remain active until the rankings relating to the next Call for applications for peer-to-peer tutoring activities for the School of Architecture, Urban Planning and Construction Engineering have been published.

ART. 7 NOTIFICATION

The successful students will be notified by way of an email sent to their university email address, a telephone call, or even a video call.

Students may only start this collaboration subject to it being formally assigned to them and, in turn, duly accepted by them.

Students may only refuse to accept a position once, whilst still maintaining their position in the ranking; a second refusal will result in their being removed from the ranking.

ART. 8 METHODS OF CARRYING OUT THE COLLABORATION AND ITS DURATION

Each tutor may only work in this position for a maximum of 150 hours per calendar year. According to specific requirements, tutoring positions for a lower number of hours may be activated.

Tutoring sessions may be carried out either in person, in the spaces used by the university for its activities, including the rooms of the colleges and residences referred to in art. 5 above, or remotely.

The two alternatives - in-person and remote sessions - may also be combined in any way necessary to meet the specific requirements and needs of those involved.

The methods and period of provision of this service are established by the Head of School or any contact persons whom they may have nominated, who are also responsible for notifying the Financial Aid Service of any negative evaluations received regarding the tutoring activity of each student involved.

The activities referred to above do not in any way constitute a subordinate working relationship, nor do they involve the students' integration in the organisation of the work of the university's administrative and teaching services or result in any kind of assessment for the purposes of public competitions.

Should any student's performance fail to meet the required quality standards, their contract will be terminated in accordance with the relevant clause included in the contract itself.

Students who receive a tutoring position may withdraw from said position by notifying the Head of School or their contact person, if appointed.

In such cases, the payment owed to the student shall be proportional to the number of hours worked. Students who withdraw from their tutoring position for any reason will not be entitled to request the assignment of further tutoring positions in order to complete their allotted 150 hours.

Students will forfeit their position in the ranking in the following cases:

- a) if they withdraw from their studies or transfer to another university;
- b) if they complete their degree;
- c) if they incur any disciplinary sanctions more serious than a warning.

ART. 9 EXCLUSION

The university administration may, at any time, exclude the student from the tutoring activity should they prove not to be properly enrolled in their course of studies, or should they fail to observe and fulfil the duties deriving from the collaboration relationship in question. Should the service relationship be terminated before its due completion, the administration may engage new collaborators from the respective merit-based ranking in order to complete the remaining hours.

Students are entitled to receive this payment even if they are recipients of the Diritto allo Studio Scholarship.

The university provides insurance coverage in the event of accidents.

For each collaboration, a single payment of the amount due will be made by the administration upon receipt of a declaration issued by the person responsible for overseeing the activity.
