DECREES

the issuance of the call for applications for the “Alexandre Allison Astier” degree award - year 2026.

art.1

Introduction

Alexandre Allison Astier died on 20 May 2021. With a degree in Electrical and Electronic Engineering obtained with honours from the Sapienza University of Rome and a Master's in Management from the London Business School, he was passionately dedicated to Real Estate throughout his professional career.

His preparation and dedication to work have made him an esteemed and professional in this sector, ready to combine the theoretical aspects of his studies with the ever-changing needs of the market. He believed in young people, motivated and guided them even with experiences outside the working world trying to bring out the skills and qualities of each of them.

In his memory this degree award was born, which honours his memory and motivate a young and future professional in our sector.
