

Dear Students, dear Colleagues,

in the past weeks we have carefully thought about the next Bachelor and Master of Science graduation sessions.

We have analysed the various possibilities and we can confirm today that we will be able to carry them out in presence.

A commitment we made to add value to a memorable moment that marks the end of your student career.

However, in order to ensure that all the necessary measures are taken to mitigate the infection, we have to ask each candidate to be accompanied by a maximum of three people.

We will keep anyway the remote connection, to ensure the possibility of following live the graduation session.

I am aware of the expectations linked to these days and of the desire to share with your loved ones this significant passage, but we will be firm in enforcing the rules. Allow me once again to appeal to your sense of responsibility: I invite you, even on these days of celebration, to maintain a proper behavior, appropriate to the historical moment we are experiencing and to avoid gatherings.

The Schools will provide detailed information about the procedures and the rules of conduct.

I invite graduating students who are abroad and unable to reach the university to contact their School.

Finally, I confirm our commitment to organize a day to celebrate students who graduated in the months of April, June and July: we must ask them to be patient, since large events to host you and your guests cannot be held yet.
