PHD-ABC SHINES AT STARTUP DAYS 2025!

DyMoND (DYnamic MOnitoring and Novelty Detection) is a startup, led by Marco Pirrò, a recent ABC PhD graduate, jointly with former ABC PhD students Paolo Borlenghi and Eleonora Bruschi, and Ana Avramova, a current PhD ABC PhD candidate. Rounding out the team is Professor Carmelo Gentile, who supervised nearly all the doctoral theses of the DyMoND team members.

DyMoND distinguished itself among the winning startups in the "Sustainable and Safe Construction" challenge at Startup Days 2025. The competition, orchestrated by Regione Lombardia, MUSA scarl, and the network of local university incubators (including PoliHub - Innovation Park & Startup Accelerator), saw the participation of over 230 aspiring teams. DyMoND secured an award of €25,000.
