Annexes 14

Art. 1
Object and scope
1) This Regulation sets out the principles and terms for determining student fees in addition to the criteria for exemption.

2) The provisions of this Regulation shall apply from the beginning of the 2022/2023 academic year for all students as defined by Art. 1 letters a), b) and d) of the Politecnico di Milano's Student Course Regulation.

Art. 2
Student contributions
1) Pursuant to Italian Law 232/2016, students on Laurea (equivalent to Bachelor of Science) programmes, Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) programmes, the single-cycle Laurea Magistrale programme and at the Specialisation School in Architectural and Landscape Heritage, shall contribute to covering the costs of teaching, scientific and administrative services by way of an “annual all-inclusive contribution”.

2) In addition to the annual all-inclusive contribution, all students shall be required to pay the amounts relating to stamp duty and regional tax for the diritto allo studio (right to education), pursuant to Article 3, paragraphs 20 to 23 of Italian Law No. 549 of 28 December 1995.

3) Additional contributions shall also be required for services provided at the student’s request for individual needs, in addition to insurance coverage.
Art. 3

Annual all-inclusive contribution amounts

1) The amount of the all-inclusive contribution for enrolment for the academic year shall be calculated on the basis of the number of university educational credits (ECTS) obtained and included in the study plan.

2) The all-inclusive contribution shall be calculated in proportion to the number of ECTS included in the study plan, as detailed in the following table:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>ECTS</th>
<th>up to 32</th>
<th>between 33</th>
<th>between 46</th>
<th>between 75</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>% of the all-inclusive contribution</td>
<td>50%</td>
<td>75%</td>
<td>100%</td>
<td>130%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Pursuant to Italian Law 232/2016 and Art. 9 of Legislative Decree 68/2012, in order to guarantee the diritto allo studio (right to education), the Politecnico di Milano shall allow its students to request total or partial exemption and the payment of the all-inclusive contribution in instalments on the basis of the financial circumstances of the student’s family, which shall be assessed via the ISEE indicator, pursuant to Prime Ministerial Decree 159/2013.

3) If an employee of the Public Administration expresses his/her desire to enrol by making use of the agreement stipulated between the Politecnico di Milano and the Ministry of Public Administration, he/she will be required to pay a single, discounted all-inclusive contribution amounting to €1,000.00 (in addition to the payment of the regional tax, stamp duty and insurance coverage); this is a fixed amount which is not calculated on the basis of other aspects of the course. For those students enrolled on Laurea On Line only, a further, discounted contribution of €1,000.00 is payable in addition to the all-inclusive contribution for the use of the platform and the dedicated tutoring service.

Art. 4

Payment methods and breakdown of the contributions

1) The Politecnico di Milano requires that the contribution be paid in two instalments by predetermined deadlines. Any failure to respect these deadlines will result in progressive late-payment surcharges becoming payable.

2) The first instalment consists of the following:
   - regional tax;
   - stamp duty for the enrolment request for the academic year;
   - insurance premiums;
   - all-inclusive contribution payment;
   - specific IOL contribution for students on the Laurea On Line only;
   - any surcharges owed;
   - any past debts of uncollected amounts.

Enrolment for the academic year will only be confirmed following payment of the first instalment.

The second instalment consists of the following:
   - remaining balance of the annual all-inclusive contribution;
   - specific IOL contribution for students of the Laurea On Line only;
   - any surcharges owed;
   - any past debts of uncollected amounts.

The payment should be made through the methods stated by the university. The contribution may not be divided into further instalments.

The total amounts payable by students on the Laurea (equivalent to Bachelor of Science) programmes, single-cycle Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) programmes and Laurea Magistrale programmes are shown in Tables 3, 4.1, 4.2 and 4.3.

Art. 5
Exemption pursuant to Italian Law 232/2016

1) Full exemption - In accordance with Italian Law 232/2016, students that fulfil all of the following criteria shall be exempt from paying the all-inclusive contribution:
   a) belonging to a household with an ISEE indicator of less than or equal to €13,000.00;
   b) enrolment on a programme for a number of academic years that is less than or equal to the normal duration of the study programme, increased by one (Laurea (equivalent to Bachelor of Science) with a duration of four years; Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) three years; single-cycle Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) six years);
   c) in the case of enrolment for the second academic year: obtaining at least 10 university educational credits by 10 August of the first year; in the case of enrolment for subsequent academic years: earning at least 25 university educational credits, in the twelve-month period ending on 10 August of the respective year of enrolment.

   In the case of enrolment for the first academic year, only the criterion referred to in point a) above must be fulfilled.

2) Partial exemption - In accordance with Italian Law 232/2016, the all-inclusive annual contribution will be no greater than 7% of the part of the ISEE that exceeds €13,000.00 for students belonging to households with an ISEE indicator of between €13,001.00 and €30,000.00 that fulfil the criteria of paragraph 5.1, letters b) and c) above.

   The value shall be rounded down to the nearest Euro.

   In the case of enrolment for the first academic year, the only criterion to be fulfilled is that of belonging to a family with an ISEE of between €13,001.00 and €30,000.00 inclusive.

3) Reduced partial exemption - The annual all-inclusive contribution will be no greater than 7% of the ISEE portion exceeding €13,000.00, increased by 50%, with a minimum value of €200.00, for students belonging to a family with an ISEE of less than €30,000.00 that fulfil the criterion referred to in paragraph 5.1, letter c) above, but not that which is referred to in letter b).

   The value shall be rounded down to the nearest Euro.

Art. 6
Requests for discounted all-inclusive contributions

1) Students who do not fulfil the criteria of Art. 5 may request that the all-inclusive contribution be discounted by providing, within the timeframes established, an ISEE indicator that falls within one of the eight income brackets according to Table No. 1 attached to this Regulation.

2) A discounted all-inclusive contribution is offered for each income bracket according to Table No. 2 attached to this Regulation. A discounted all-inclusive contribution shall not be granted for ISEE indicator values that are greater than the upper limit of income bracket 8.

3) No discount shall be granted for the all-inclusive contribution without a valid ISEE, or in any case after payment of the second instalment referred to in the following article.

Art. 7
Equivalent Economic Situation Indicator

1) The students described in Art. 5 that are enrolling for the first time at the Politecnico di Milano are required to provide the ISEE indicator relating to the calendar year of enrolment.

2) In order to confirm the full or partial exemption, an additional ISEE indicator relating to the calendar year of issuance of any second instalment must be provided, which may determine, according to the case:
   - confirmation of the full exemption granted in accordance with Art. 5;
   - confirmation of a partial exemption with a request for payment of the portion due in accordance with Art. 5;
ATTENTION: the English translation of the “Contribution Regulation” is only an information aid addressed to international students. From a normative point of view, the Italian version is the one to be considered.

- loss of the right to any full and/or partial exemption with a request for payment of the balance of the contribution due. If the second ISEE indicator is not provided, no reduction in the all-inclusive contribution shall be granted.

3) Students enrolling for the first time at the Politecnico di Milano that fail to produce an ISEE indicator prior to enrolment must pay the first instalment in full. However, it will be possible to provide an indicator relating to the calendar year of issuance of the second instalment, which may determine, according to the case:
   - the granting of the full exemption in accordance with Art. 5, triggering the refund process;
   - the granting of a partial exemption in accordance with Art. 5, triggering the refund process and/or payment of the balance, as applicable;
   - the allocation of an income bracket and a request for payment of any balance due.

4) For students already enrolled at Politecnico di Milano that intend to enrol for subsequent academic years, the ISEE indicator already submitted during the previous academic year will be taken into account and a provisional value for the first instalment will be calculated on the basis of this before the procedure described above is followed.

5) If no valid ISEE indicator is provided, no reduction in the all-inclusive contribution shall be granted.

Art. 8

Contributions for students with overseas income and assets

1) Pursuant to Art. 1, paragraph 261 of Italian Law 232/2016, for students on programmes that have income and assets overseas for whom the calculation of the household ISEE cannot be applied, the amount of the annual all-inclusive contribution shall be established independently by the Politecnico di Milano in accordance with Article 8, paragraph 5 of the Regulation referred to in the Prime Ministerial Decree No. 159 of December 2013, according to the following procedure.

2) As an alternative to the ISEE, the economic situation indicator of such students shall be determined on the basis of Prime Ministerial Decree 159/2013 and the Memorandum of Understanding stipulated on 3 June 2015 between the National Association of Bodies for the Diritto allo Studio (right to education) (ANDISU) and the Tax Advice Centres (CAFs) belonging to the National Council. The method for calculating the indicator, called “ISEEU parificato” (Equivalent Economic Situation Index for University - parificato), is explained in Attachment A of the previous Protocol.

3) Students of Laurea (equivalent to Bachelor of Science) programmes, Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) and single-cycle Laurea Magistrale programmes can request, through the same process as Italian students, a discounted all-inclusive contribution using the ISEEU-parificato, which is to be obtained solely and exclusively at the CAFs specified by Politecnico di Milano.

4) Non-EU students on Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) programmes with an undergraduate degree obtained abroad that are accepted without any financial aid are required to pay the all-inclusive contribution in full, unless they are eligible for special full or partial exemptions as described below.

5) Incoming students participating in mobility programmes that are accepted by the relevant authorities beyond the number agreed upon in the specific agreements (exchange and double degree), and in cases in which the agreement does not provide for reciprocity in the payment of tuition fees, shall be placed in the highest contribution bracket.
ATTENTION: the English translation of the “Contribution Regulation” is only an information aid addressed to international students. From a normative point of view, the Italian version is the one to be considered.

Art. 9

Exemptions pursuant to Legislative Decree 68/2012 and Art. 30 of Italian Law 118/1971

1) Pursuant to Legislative Decree 68/2012 Art. 9, paragraphs 2, 3, 8 and 9, the Politecnico di Milano shall grant full exemption from payment of the all-inclusive contribution for the following categories of students:
   a) students with a certified disability of 66% or more;
   b) international students in receipt of an annual scholarship from the Italian government;
   c) students that fulfil the eligibility requirements for the Diritto allo Studio (right to education) scholarship.

2) Pursuant to Art. 30 of Italian Law 118/1971, the Politecnico di Milano shall grant a full exemption from payment of the all-inclusive contribution for the following categories of students that belong to families in conditions of financial hardship, that is those with an ISEE indicator of less than or equal to €13,000.00 for the calendar year in which payment of the second instalment is due:
   a) amputees and disabled persons that have suffered a reduction of more than two-thirds of their capacity to work,
   b) children of recipients of a disability pension,
   c) war orphans, war-related amputees and disabled persons, and work-related or service-related amputees, blind and disabled persons, and their children.

3) For the exemptions described in paragraph 1, letter a) and paragraph 2 of this article, students are required to present a specific request according to the procedure and within the timeframes established by the university.

Art. 10

Other exemptions

1) The Politecnico di Milano shall grant a full exemption for the following categories of students:
   1) students with exceptional academic results;
   2) students who are parents of young children;
   3) working students, students undertaking voluntary civic or military service;
   4) siblings enrolling simultaneously;
   5) students undertaking a Double Degree programme;
   6) students enrolled on the Alta Scuola Politecnica (ASP) programme;
   7) students enrolling on programmes in affiliation with other universities;
   8) international students in receipt of a scholarship from the Politecnico di Milano or other institutions.

2) The aforementioned exemptions cannot be granted to students who already hold an academic qualification, whether obtained in Italy or abroad, of a level equal to or greater than the study programme on which they are enrolling.

3) For the exemption categories mentioned in points 1) to 4), students shall be required to submit a specific request according to the procedure and within the timeframes established by the university; for exemption categories 5), 6), 7) and 8), exemption shall be granted automatically, where possible in advance by inclusion in payment requests or, alternatively, by means of reimbursement of any amounts already paid by the student.

4) In the case of multiple requests for exemption, the most economically advantageous option for the student will be granted, with the exception of the exemption for the Internal Double Degree, which can be obtained in conjunction with the exemption for merit.

5) The Board of Governors sets the maximum limit for the loss of revenue resulting from the granting of the aforementioned exemptions. In the event that the total amount of the exemptions granted exceeds the aforementioned limit, there shall be a percentage reduction of the amounts.

6) The specific contribution for the Laurea On Line cannot be subject to exemption.
ATTENTION: the English translation of the “Contribution Regulation” is only an information aid addressed to international students. From a normative point of view, the Italian version is the one to be considered.

1) Students of with exceptional academic results on Laurea (equivalent to Bachelor of Science), five-year single-cycle Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) and Laurea Magistrale programmes.

The exemption for academic achievement shall be granted on the basis of the results achieved in the previous academic year. The requisites required include regular enrolment for the current academic year and exceptional academic results, differentiated by study programme and year of enrolment as shown in the table below:

ATTENTION: the English translation of the “Contribution Regulation” is only an information aid addressed to international students. From a normative point of view, the Italian version is the one to be considered.

For students belonging to any contribution bracket above the fourth, the proportion of exemption will be calculated according to that which is foreseen for the fourth contribution bracket.

The average shall be calculated on the total ECTS earned, beginning with the first year of the programme. The average shall be calculated using the exam scores - expressed in thirtieths - foreseen by the study plan for the previous academic year and the average value shall be weighted with the following formula: sum of the products of the scores for the relative ECTS, divided by the sum of the ECTS obtained.

Extra exams, study plan entries such as internships, final exams and similar that may be included in the approved study plan for the previous academic year shall not be taken into consideration for the purposes of calculating the average or calculating the minimum ECTS required.

For students that have transferred from another university, the year of first enrolment at Politecnico di Milano shall be taken into consideration, while for students that change their programme within the Politecnico or re-enrol following a withdrawal or forfeiture, the year of the change in programme or re-enrolment shall be taken into consideration. In both cases, any ECTS relating to the previous academic career and validated in the new one shall not be taken into account in the calculation of the ECTS or the average.

In order to be eligible for an exemption for the first year of enrolment on a Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science), it is a necessary requirement that the student's first university enrolment on a three-year Laurea (equivalent to Bachelor of Science) programme at the Politecnico di Milano or another Italian university occurred three academic years before the current academic year.

2) Students with young children

Students that are parents of a child that will not reach his/her sixth birthday during the calendar year in which the academic year commences shall be exempt from paying the all-inclusive contribution for the academic year in which they enrol; the amount of such exemption shall be determined on the basis of the economic situation indicator (ISEE or ISEEU-parificato), and for those belonging to a contribution bracket higher than the fourth, the proportion of exemption will be calculated according to that which is foreseen for the fourth contribution bracket.

The amount of the exemption for international students, who are not required to submit an economic situation indicator, shall be calculated according to that which is foreseen for the fourth contribution bracket.

3) Working students, students undertaking voluntary civic or military service in the community

Working students or students undertaking civic or voluntary military service in the community enrolling for the first time on a programme, may not submit a request for exemption, with the exception of those students who re-register after the withdrawal or forfeiture from programmes at the Politecnico di Milano. In any case, the exemption shall only be granted if they have passed at least one exam in the calendar year in which the academic year begins; extra exams, study plan entries such as internships, final exams and similar shall not be considered.

The employment status must be properly verified and must fall into one of the following categories:

1) an employed worker, for a period of at least six months during the calendar year in which the academic year begins, with a minimum weekly commitment of 18 hours;
2) a self-employed worker, in possession of a VAT number with income from employment of no less than €7,766.00 gross, as evidenced by the income declaration relating to the tax period of the calendar year prior to the start of the academic year;
3) a service provider, for a period of at least six months during the calendar year in which the academic year begins, with a minimum weekly commitment of 18 hours and/or with an earned income of no less than €7,766.00 gross during the calendar year in which the academic year begins.
ATTENTION: the English translation of the “Contribution Regulation” is only an information aid addressed to international students. From a normative point of view, the Italian version is the one to be considered.

4) Civic and military service providers. The beginning of the period of civic/military voluntary service must be during the period from 1 January to 31 December of the calendar year in which the academic year begins.
An exemption of 25% of the all-inclusive contribution shall be granted.
For students belonging to any contribution bracket above the fourth, the proportion of exemption will be calculated according to that which is foreseen for the fourth contribution bracket.

4) Simultaneous enrolment of siblings
Students with siblings belonging to the same household, as evidenced by the ISEE certificate, that are enrolling at the same time (for the same academic year) on a Laurea (equivalent to Bachelor of Science), Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) or single-cycle Laurea Magistrale programme, may present a request for a 10% reduction in the value of their economic situation indicator which may lead to the allocation of a lower income bracket.

5) Students enrolling on a Double Degree programme
Students enrolling on a Double Laurea (equivalent to Bachelor of Science) programme with another university, the agreement of which requires for an extra commitment in terms of ECTS such that it is necessary to enrol for an additional academic year beyond the normal duration of the single study programme, shall be exempt from the payment of the all-inclusive contribution for enrolment for the additional year.

For students enrolling on Double Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) programmes financed by the European Union for which the contribution is partially covered by the funding that the Politecnico di Milano receives from the consortium to which it belongs, the students shall be exempt from paying any exceeding part for the first two years of enrolment, notwithstanding the payment of regional tax, stamp duty and insurance unless otherwise provided for by the programme.

Students enrolling on an internal Double Laurea (equivalent to Bachelor of Science) programme at the Politecnico di Milano shall only be required to pay 100% of the all-inclusive contribution for the first two years of enrolment, irrespective of the number of ECTS included in the study plan. For the third academic year of enrolment and any subsequent years, students shall only be granted a full exemption from payment of the all-inclusive contribution if they remain on the specific internal Double Laurea (equivalent to Bachelor of Science) programme.

6) Students enrolling on an Alta Scuola Politecnica (ASP) programme
Students accepted at the Alta Scuola Politecnica shall be exempt from paying the all-inclusive contribution for the entire period spent on the specific training programme.

7) Students enrolling on programmes in affiliation with other universities
Students enrolled on the UIC - University of Illinois Chicago affiliated programme shall still be required to enrol for the second year of that programme and shall be exempt from paying the all-inclusive contribution (notwithstanding the payment of regional tax, stamp duty and insurance).

8) International students in receipt of a scholarship from the Politecnico di Milano or other institutions
International students on Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) in receipt of a scholarship from the Politecnico di Milano or other institutions shall be exempt from paying the all-inclusive contribution for the years in which they receive the scholarship.
Students that, having received the benefits of the aforementioned scholarship for the two years expected, need to enrol for another academic year shall only be exempt for one additional year.
ATTENTION: the English translation of the “Contribution Regulation” is only an information aid addressed to international students. From a normative point of view, the Italian version is the one to be considered.

For any subsequent additional years of enrolment, non-EU students shall be placed in the maximum contribution bracket; EU students shall be placed in the contribution bracket that corresponds to their economic situation indicator.

Non-EU students that lose the scholarship after the first year of award shall be placed in the maximum contribution bracket for any subsequent years; EU students shall be placed in the contribution bracket based that corresponds to their economic status indicator.

Non-EU students accepted on Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) programmes that benefit from the Diritto allo Studio (right to education) scholarship (awarded on the basis of academic achievement and income) that are unable to confirm the scholarship, thus losing the exemption, shall automatically be placed in the highest income bracket.

Art. 11
Special concessions

1) The Politecnico di Milano offers financial concessions for those students that graduate within the date corresponding to the graduation session of the previous academic year; for those students, the value of the all-inclusive contribution (taking into account the number of ECTS included in the study plan) shall amount to 50% of the value due. This concession shall not be granted in the event of a study plan being presented for the additional academic year which includes extra courses.

The same financial concession shall also be offered to students enrolled on a degree course under systems predating Ministerial Decree 509/1999 that need to sit no more than three exams.

In the event that the students described above do not graduate within the aforementioned timeframes, they shall be required to pay the remaining balance of the all-inclusive contribution due.

2) The Politecnico di Milano offers financial concessions to students that are required to enrol for a new academic year that had a complete study plan for the previous academic year and had passed all exams, including any extra courses and internships during the graduation sessions of the previous academic years and that shall graduate in sessions subsequent to the last session of the previous academic year; the amount of the all-inclusive contribution for these students shall amount to 25% of the value due and, if enrolled on the online IT Laurea (equivalent to Bachelor of Science) course, they shall also be exempt from paying the contribution for use of the related platform.

3) In the event of eligibility for exemptions other than those set out in Art. 10 and for special concessions in accordance with paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, only the most advantageous economic benefit for the student shall be granted.

4) Students enrolled on a Laurea (equivalent to Bachelor of Science) programme at the Politecnico di Milano that submit a certificate of English language proficiency which qualifies them for admission to a Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) shall obtain a fixed contribution of €100.00, to be set off against any amounts owed. The certification must be obtained from 1 January of the calendar year of enrolment on the Laurea (equivalent to Bachelor of Science) at the Politecnico di Milano and before the end of the programme.

5) The fixed contribution will not be granted to enrolled students that withdraw from their studies.
ATTENTION: the English translation of the “Contribution Regulation” is only an information aid addressed to international students. From a normative point of view, the Italian version is the one to be considered.

Art. 12

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- A surcharge of €200.00 for late submission of the request for allocation of a bracket other than the maximum bracket. It is the student's responsibility to submit the request for allocation of a bracket other than the maximum bracket through the Online Services of the Politecnico di Milano by 31 March of each year. The DSU (Single Substitute Declaration) for the diritto allo studio (right to education) must be present in the INPS database by the same date. In both cases, a surcharge of €200.00 will be applied after that date.

- A surcharge of €100.00 for submission of the study plan after the deadlines defined in the calendar for the academic year.
- A surcharge of €150.00 for late submission of the application for admission on the Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science), or late enrolment. An application for admission on the Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) and/or an application for enrolment which is submitted after the deadlines, but before the deadline for submission of the study plan, can only be accepted subject to approval from the relevant School.

Art. 13

Contributions for individual courses

For enrolment on individual courses, in accordance with Art. 12 of the Politecnico di Milano’s Student Course Regulations, the sum of the contribution to be paid consists of a first instalment of a fixed amount and a second instalment which varies according to the total number of ECTS required, as per Table No. 5 attached.

Art. 14

Specialisation School

1) For students regularly enrolled at the Specialisation School in Architectural and Landscape Heritage, there is a fixed annual all-inclusive contribution of €3,000.00, in addition to the amounts relating to:
   - regional tax: €140.00;
   - stamp duty: €16.00;
   - insurance: €9.59.

2) The Politecnico di Milano requires payment of the contribution in two equal instalments within predetermined deadlines:
   - the first instalment (inclusive of regional tax, stamp duty and insurance) is to be paid at the time of enrolment for each academic year;
   - the second instalment is to be paid by 30 April of each academic year.

3) For students enrolling to repeat a year, there shall be a fixed annual all-inclusive contribution to be paid in a single instalment at the time of enrolling for the academic year, on the basis of the ECTS still to be obtained:
   - between 1 and 16 ECTS, student lacking the specialisation thesis only: regional tax, stamp duty and insurance only;
   - between 17 and 46 ECTS: €750.00, in addition to the amounts relating to regional tax, stamp duty and insurance;
   - 47 ECTS or more: €1,500.00, in addition to the amounts relating to regional tax, stamp duty and insurance.

4) Enrolment for the academic year will only be confirmed following payment of the first instalment. The payment should be made with the methods given by the university. The contribution may not be divided into further instalments.

   Specialisation students who wish to present the Specialisation thesis in the session of reference shall be required to pay €30 for the certificate and €32 for revenue stamps (to be fulfilled online and/or on paper).

Art. 15

Political refugees

1) Students that have applied for political refugee status and are awaiting a decision by the relevant authorities, like those that have already received such status, shall be exempted from submitting the Single Substitute Declaration (ISEEU-parificato) and shall be allocated to contribution bracket 1 for the entire normal duration of the programme on which they are enrolled.

2) However, in the case of income and/or assets held in Italy, they must obtain a University ISEE Certification.
ATTENTION: the English translation of the “Contribution Regulation” is only an information aid addressed to international students. From a normative point of view, the Italian version is the one to be considered

Art. 16
Resumption of studies
1) When submitting a request to resume their studies, students that have interrupted/suspended their studies - provided that they have not forfeited their student status - will be required to pay the fixed fee of €254.00 for each academic year of interruption/suspension, in addition to any sums owed at the time of said interruption/suspension and upon resumption of their studies.

Art. 17
Withdrawal from studies
1) Students that withdraw from their studies must settle any debts contractually owed to the Politecnico di Milano before formalising their withdrawal.
2) Recently enrolled students on Laurea (equivalent to Bachelor of Science), Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) or single-cycle Laurea Magistrale programme, or on individual courses, that have not yet obtained the certification relating to their enrolment and decide to withdraw from their studies by the deadlines determined by the university shall be entitled to a refund of the entire first instalment, less the stamp duty.
3) Students enrolled on a Laurea (equivalent to Bachelor of Science) or Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) or single-cycle Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) programme shall only be required to pay the first instalment if they withdraw from their studies before the start of the second semester and the entire contribution due if the request to withdraw is submitted after the start of the lectures of the second semester according to the calendar of the academic year.
4) Students enrolled on individual courses shall be required to pay the entire contribution due even if they submit a request before the start of the second semester according to the academic calendar.
5) Students at the Specialisation School in Architectural and Landscape Heritage that withdraw from their studies shall be required to inform the Head of the School by completing the relevant form. The withdrawal is irrevocable and shall not entitle the student to the return of any payments already made.

Art. 18
Collection of amounts owed
1) The Politecnico di Milano, in compliance with the legislation in effect, shall not enter into collection proceedings for amounts of less than €12.00.
2) The Politecnico di Milano reserves the right to block, at the time of graduation, students who have not paid the contributions due or who owe amounts to the university for housing services they have received. In order to have this block removed, the student shall be required to settle their position by paying any debts owed by the deadlines established for registering in the graduation session.

Art. 19
Entry into effect
1) This Regulation shall enter into effect for all students from the start of the 2022/2023 academic year.
2) The tables attached to this Regulation shall be reviewed annually by the Academic Senate and the Board of Governors.
3) This Regulation is issued by Rectoral Decree and is published on the university's website http://www.normativa.polimi.it.
