Purpose 3
The data provided will be processed for the use of online voting services to conduct electoral procedures of the University's structures and bodies, for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest and for compliance with specific legal obligations comprising the Covid-19 containment measures (Art. 6, paragraph 1, letters e) and c) of the EU Regulation).

Public interest (Article 6, paragraph 1, letter e) of the Regulation - Statute and General Regulations of the University).

- Identifying data;
- Personal details;
- Contact details (e-mail);
- Student, PD or PTA ID
- Academic information.

The collected data will be kept for a period of 2 years.

Nature of the data
The provision of data is optional. Refusal to provide the data prevents us from pursuing the intended purposes.

Processing methods
Processing for the above-mentioned purposes is carried out digitally, with electronic tools provided by the ELIGO platform.

The data acquired for the aforementioned purposes shall only be accessed by duly authorised administrative personnel.

In accordance with the principle of transparency of the electoral procedure, the lists of supporters for each Electoral Roll are available in the electoral body Reserved Area, in order to perform a prior check on the legitimacy of the Electoral Rolls. These lists will remain available until the Electoral Roll is constituted and validated.

Categories of recipients
Data will be shared with staff of the university structures who are involved in the achievement of the above-mentioned purposes as well as with ID TECHNOLOGY srl, the supplier of the ELIGO platform, which is for this purpose designated as the Data Processor, pursuant to Art. 28 of the Regulation by means of a specific appointment.

Data may also be shared with other third parties in compliance with a legal obligation and/or an order of the court.

Retention period of personal data
At the end of the period per TABLE 1, the data necessary for the proper functioning of the Public Administration will be indefinitely kept for archiving and storage purposes, in compliance with the principle of transparency and the principles of lawfulness, proportionality and data minimisation.

Transfer to non-EU countries or international organisations
Personal data shall in no way be transferred to non-EU countries or international organisations.

Rights of data subjects
As a data subject, you can ask the Data Controller for the following at any time:
• confirmation of any personal data held concerning you;
• access to your personal data and related information; the correction of inaccurate data or the completion of incomplete data; restriction of the processing of your personal data (in the event of one of the cases indicated in Art. 18, paragraph 1 of the Regulation); the transformation into anonymous form or the blocking of data processed in violation of the law, including those that do not need to be kept for the purposes for which the data were collected or subsequently processed.

Since the processing is carried out for the performance of a task of public interest vested in the Data Controller, it will not be possible to comply with requests to delete personal data once they have been acquired, pursuant to Art. 17, paragraph 3, letter b) of the Regulation.

The exercising of the right to oppose the processing of personal data, pursuant to Art. 21 of the Regulation, is not applicable as voting is a guaranteed right of superior interest. In consideration of an appropriate balance, the Data Controller will not be able to refrain from processing personal data as there are compelling legitimate reasons (exercising the right for the formation of academic representatives and other collegiate bodies), which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject for the processing of personal data alone.

As a data subject, you also have the right to object in whole or in part:

• for legitimate reasons, to the processing of personal data concerning you, even if pertinent to the purpose of the collection;
• to the processing of personal data concerning you for the purpose of sending promotional material.

These rights can be exercised by contacting privacy@polimi.it.

If you believe that your rights have been violated by the Data Controller and/or a third party, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Personal Data Protection Authority and/or other competent supervisory authority pursuant to the Regulation.
